

The FCC is about to relax rules that will allow giant corporations to have a much bigger monopoly over, not only art and entertainment, but the dissemination of news.

Sorry, this is wrong. I felt it important to air my views in this matter.

Steve Diller